

CIVIL NO. 1:08CV546

Defendant.

ORDER

The Court notes Plaintiff is proceeding pro se and dispositive motions have been filed. However, the teachings of the Fourth Circuit in Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975), are inapplicable in the context of an appeal from an administrative decision inasmuch as the scope of review is limited to whether the underlying decision was supported by substantial evidence. Plaintiff is advised that the only issues on review are whether the Commissioner applied the correct legal standards and whether the Commissioner's decision is supported by substantial evidence.

Richardson v. Perales*, 402 U.S. 389, 390 (1971); Hays v. Sullivan, 907 F.2d 1453, 1456 (4th Cir. 1990). Review by a federal court is not de novo, Smith v. Schwieker, 795 F.2d 343, 345 (4th Cir. 1986); rather, inquiry is limited to whether there was “such relevant evidence as a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion.” Richardson*, 402 U.S. at 390. Even if the undersigned were to find that a preponderance of the evidence weighed against the Commissioner's decision, the Commissioner's decision would have to be affirmed if supported by substantial evidence. Hays*, 907 F.2d at 1456.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that, if the Plaintiff wishes to submit further response as to why the Defendant's motion for judgment on the pleadings should be denied, he must do so on or before July 31, 2009.

Signed: June 30, 2009
